Registrations—The registrations at the auditor's office were slow yesterday. The registrations divided among the six precincts are as follows: No.
1, 30; No. 2, 33; No. 3, 43; No. 4, 53; No. 5, 30; No. 6, 53; total, 272.
This is only about one-fifth of the legal voters of the city.

PARK COMMISSION
MEETING

NO ACTION TAKEN RELATIVE TO
LOCATION OF THE NEW FOUN-TAIN PRESENTED TO THE CITY BY WOMEN'S CLUB.

The Astoria Park Commission held a meeting last evening at the city hall. Mayor Wise, J. E. Gratke, A.
S. Tee and Gus Hildebrand were present. The minutes of the previous meeting would have been read had they been found.

The question of a suitable site for the new fountain presented to the commission by the Women's Club of Astoria came up for discussion. The members expressed themselves that a prominent location should be selected, and one of easy access to the people who visited the park. After considerable discussion, it was decided that the entire commission be appointed as a committee to visit the park next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock and select the site.

A communication was received from Thomas Bush, agreeing to build a foundation for the fountain five feet square, of concrete, for $5. On motion the proposition was accepted.

On motion of Tee, a vote of thanks was extended to the members of the Woman's club for the fountain and the mayor was instructed to write a letter to them of the action of the commission.

The bills of Prael Elgner & Co. for $2.50 and A. S. Tee for $20 were ordered paid. The bill of Prael, Elg-ner & Co. was for hack hire at the 4th of July celebration, which the committee did not pay on account of lack of funds.

The bill of E. A. Gerding for $60 for work of graveling and pulling out a stump, was brought up for consideration. Objection was made that the graveling had not been completed according to contract, and the stump had not been pulled out, and the bill was laid over until such time as the contract was completed.

There being no further business the commission adjourned to meet Thursday evening, November 1.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The British bark Peter Iredale is now stranded on Clatsop beach, Oregon, about four miles south of the Columbia river. We invite offers, upon the basis of "no cure, no pay," to float and deliver the vessel at Astoria or other safe port. Tenders will be received at Lloyd's Agency, at Astoria, by telegraph or otherwise.

Some Timber Cruisers—A party of fifteen timber cruisers was in the city yesterday morning, having reached here on Monday night, and put up at the Parker house, registering as follows: H. Steinnick, J. D. McDonald, M. S. McGilvery, R. Sanders, F. S.
Scritsmier, Robert Wheaton, E. Eastman, F. W. Bower, J. L. Drinker, W.
W. Rieve, L. W. Ohlinger and J. Kelley, of Portland; and A. L. Hayes, of Dallas, A. L. Teegarden, of Hillsboro, and one other who failed to enter his name on the hotel register.
The party was equipped with plenty of rough weather habiliments, small axes, and pocket compasses, and they hired six teams and three saddle horses out of Astoria early yesterday morning and left, presumably for the Nehalem country. Another group of men, on the same errand, and said to be of the same party, came down on the express last night, and will leave out this morning. There were seven of these.

In the Circuit Court—The attention of Judge McBride was taken up yesterday with the testimony and arguments in the case of Sanborn versus Fitzpatrick, and the case is now under advisement. During the afternoon the bench warrants issued on Monday for the arrest of Fred Olsen for selling liquor at Olney without the necessary licenses, were returned into court along with the defendant, and he was arraigned on three separate charges of the same nature, to each of which he entered a plea of "not guilty," and under bonds of $250 in each case, he was released and trial of the issues set for an early date in the February term.
Judge McBride will leave here sometime tomorrow for St. Helen's to open court.

Health Culture Lecture—Free. Prof.
Ringer of Portland will give a practical demonstration of exercises to the women Thursday, Nov. 1, at 3 p. m., at A. O. U. W. hall. All are invited.

Halloween Windows—Among the many curious and appropriate signals of the approach of Halloween is the window decorated in this behalf by P. A. Stokes, the well known clothing, at Twelfth and Commercial streets. It is unique and wholly in season. The "jack o'lanterns" are there, properly and thrillingly cut into hideous faces and each fortified with electric lights; the indispensable "kid" is there with his wagon and the stolen gate, and there are other bright and applicable things to demonstrate the season and all it means not only to the youngster, but the householder as well as the man who wears good clothes.

Minstrels Coming—At the Lansing last evening, the Beach & Bowers minstrel organization made good the claim of being the monarchs of minstrelsy. On various occasions I have hesitated to recommend a show for the coming matinee and evening performances for fear the suspicion of collusion between the managers and myself might get abroad and damage my reputation for veracity. This is one of the instances in which it behooves me to say in all sincerity: Go and see it.—Lincoln (Neb.) Evening News.—This fine troupe is due in this city and at the new Astoria theater, next Tuesday night, November 6.

Candidates for Penitentiary—A boy named Junty and Edwar Smith, stole a watch off the steamer Columbine yesterday. The theft was reported to the police and Officer Linville rounded up the boys and found the watch on Smith's person. No complaint has been filed, but one will probably be today. Smith is about 9 years old and Junty 10. Both are tough characters. Both should serve a term in the reform school.
They are allowed to roam the streets at all hours of the nights and frequent saloons, and they are simply candidates for the penitentiary, unless their parents use some endeavor to keep them off the streets.

Anderson Alive—Tony Anderson, who was shot in the head on the Lewis and Clark last Sunday by Martin Berg, is still alive at the hospital, with but little chances for his recovery. Dr. Pilkington, the attending physician, states that the right side of the brain is paralyzed and should Anderson recover he will be a paralytic or idiotic, a burden to himself and family. Dr. Pilkington does not think the man can live but a short time.

Literary Journal—W. B. Bishop and A. Davis, two prominent literary gentlemen, are making arrangements to start a weekly literary paper in this city. The paper will be devoted to a scientific delineation of important literary matters, with poetical effusions and discussions of the Darwinian theory of the origin of man. The paper, it is said, will be "something out of the ordinary," and will fill the proverbial "long felt want."

City Charter—Auditor Anderson has completed compiling the 15 amendments to the city charter and they are now in the hands of the printer. The charter will be published in full in the Astorian and 1,500 copies of each amendment published in pamphlet form for general distribution among the voters, in order that they may have an opportunity to study the proposed amendments and vote intelligently.

Business Dull—Business was dull at the Auditor's office and police court yesterday. Not a complaint was filed and no arrests made.

Amusing and Realistic—The long and lively films now on exhibition at the Waldorf concert hall are among the best Kinetoscope work ever shown in this city, and include a remarkable presentation of Arabian magic and its alluring transitions; and elopment, with all its accessories of fun and danger; the tribulations of a bibulous individual and his erratic spouse, who goes with him on one of his peripatetic sojourns about the city with a grand finale in the way of his defeat and a thorough trouncing when he gets home.
